

ARE YOU READY FOR A CAREER UPGRADE?

Gain New Skills by Enrolling in a Tuition Free WAREHOUSE TECHNICIAN PROGRAM!

A 6-week program that prepares students for work in the supply chain logistics industry as a warehouse worker. This training program includes two courses:

- ITCTC-371: Warehouse & Distribution Practices I - Forklift and electric pallet jack safety and operation skills necessary for employment, inventory and warehouse procedures utilizing computer based program resulting in logistics certification, basic and applied mathematics, basic computer, reading and writing practice, warehouse equipment like strapping and manual pallet jack.
- ITCTC-372: Warehouse & Distribution Practices II - Provides forklift operation and safety skills necessary for employment in warehouse environment. Warehouse inventory and processing procedures utilizing computer based related programs, mathematics and proper packaging techniques to industry standards.

Participants must be 18 years or older, and must have a valid California Driver's License.

Program Orientation Date: 9AM, Monday, August 30th, 2021

Location: Career Technology Center, 2930 East Annadale Avenue, Fresno, CA 93725

Contact:

- Jeff Arends • (559) 265-5700 • wfd@fresnocitycollege.edu
- Oscar Partida • (559) 600-3866 • opartida@fresnocountyca.gov

<https://www.fresnocitycollege.edu/academics/career-and-technical-education/ctc.html>

WAREHOUSE TECHNICIAN PROGRAM CLASS SCHEDULE FALL 2021

Course	Description	Dates	Days	Hours
ITCTC-371	Warehouse & Distribution Practices I	10/11/21–11/22/21	M - F	8:30 – 11:45AM
ITCTC-372	Warehouse & Distribution Practices II	10/11/21–11/22/21	M – F	12:00 – 3:15PM